

Download as a Word doc

TOM TRENNEY Discography

Organ recordings

Organa Americana – American organ music performed by Tom Trenney Pro Organo CD 7196

Includes works by George Shearing, Craig Phillips, Stephen Paulus, Anne Wilson, Jennifer Conner, and Dudley Buck, plus an improvisation.

Recorded at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Savannah, Georgia

Tom Trenney – Organ Ovarions and Improvisations

Raven OAR-870

Includes two multi-movement improvisations and works by J.S. Bach, Robert Schumann, Horatio Parker, Edwin Lemare, and Felix Mendelssohn.

Recorded at St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Baltimore, Maryland

Organ/Choral recordings

Hymns from First-Plymouth

Pro Organo CD 7260

Inspired arrangements of great hymns of faith offered by musicians from First-Plymouth Church in Lincoln, Nebraska, with organists/conductors Tom Trenney and Jeremy Bankson.

Recorded at First-Plymouth Church, Lincoln, Nebraska

Carols from First-Plymouth

available from First-Plymouth Church

Spirited arrangements of beloved Christmas carols sung by the Plymouth Choir and accompanied by the Plymouth Brass and Plymouth Ringers with conductors/organists Tom Trenney and Jeremy Bankson.

Recorded at First-Plymouth Church, Lincoln, Nebraska

Choral recordings

Look up ... and See

available from www.manyvoicesonesong.org

Uplifting choral music with an inspirational message, sung by sounding light — a twenty-eight-voice chamber choir; conducted by Tom Trenney. This recording features world premieres by Anne Wilson and Tom Trenney among other favorites.

Recorded at First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham, Michigan

Glories Stream from Heaven Afar

available from www.manyvoicesonesong.org

Colorful arrangements of beloved Christmas carols, including the world premiere of Tom Trenney's setting of "O Come, All Ye Faithful," sung by sounding light chamber choir and conducted by Tom Trenney.

Recorded at First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham, Michigan